When an individual is nominated to be a director, details of their relevant professional history and qualifications will be made accessible to the security holders in the Company.
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	The Directors and senior executives of the Company were given letters of appointment and/or service agreements prior to their engagement with the Company.
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The Company Secretary, Mr Andrew Whitten, was appointed by and is responsible to the Board through the Chairman. The Chairman and the Company Secretary co-ordinate the Board agenda.
1.5	A listed entity should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them and either: 1. the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or 2. if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act.	No  No N/A	Given the current size and stage of development of the Company, the Board has not considered it appropriate to adopt a formal diversity policy.  As the Company continues to develop, the Board will re-evaluate whether the adoption of a formal diversity policy is appropriate.
1.6	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	No  N/A	The Chairman is responsible for establishing processes for the review of the performance of individual Directors, Board Committees and the Board as a whole and implementation of such processes. The performance evaluation includes an examination of the performance of the Board and individual Directors as against the Board Charter and may establish goals and recommendations for improvement to Board performance.  The Chairman has not yet undertaken a formal performance appraisal of each senior executive during the current reporting period.

1.7	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	No N/A	The Chairman is responsible for periodically reviewing and making recommendations to the Board regarding the performance of the Company's senior executives. The Company, through the Chairman, has not yet undertaken a formal performance appraisal of each senior executive during the current reporting period.
2	Structure the Board to Add Value
	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and</li> <li>2. is chaired by an independent director,</li> </ol> and disclose: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>3. the charter of the committee;</li> <li>4. the members of the committee; and</li> <li>5. as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or</li> </ol> (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	No No No No N/A Yes	Due to the current size and stage of development of the Company, the Board does not consider that it is appropriate to adopt a separate nomination committee to oversee the appointment of Directors or implement a corresponding nomination committee charter. The appointment of new Directors and undertaking appropriate checks before such appointments will be the responsibility of the entire Board. The Board will ensure that all material information to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director is provided to security holders.
2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	No	The Board strives to ensure that it is comprised of Directors with a blend of skills, experience and attributes appropriate for the Company and its business. However, given the current size and stage of development of the Company, the Board has not considered it necessary to adopt and disclose a formal board matrix to the market.
2.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest,	N/A N/A	The Board has reviewed the position and associations of each of the three Directors and have determined that none of the current directors of the Company are independent directors. In making this determination, the Board has had regard to the requirements for independence in Principle 2 of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles, and other facts, information and circumstances that the Board considers relevant. Information with respect to potential issues of independence may be disclosed to the market but no formal policy exists to ensure such disclosure.

	position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Yes	All current directors of the Company were appointed on 23 March 2018.
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	No	The Board does not currently consider an independent majority of the Board to be appropriate, as it is of the opinion that the Board should consist of at least two (2) executive Directors to ensure that the Company is effectively managed. The Board has taken the following steps to structure the Board to add value despite not already having an independent majority of directors: (a) membership of the Board is focused on providing the Company with a broad base of industry skills and experiences considered necessary to fulfil the business objectives of the Company; and (b) membership of the Board is reviewed on an on-going basis by the Chairman of the Board to determine if additional core strengths are required to be added to the Board in light of the nature of the Company's business and its objectives.
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	No	The Executive Chairman of the Company, Mr Ross Warner, is not considered to be an independent director. The Company's equivalent of a CEO is Ms. Joanne Kendrick, Managing Director.
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	No	The Company has an induction programme for each new Director upon appointment. This includes meeting with members of the existing Board, Company Secretary, management and other relevant executives to familiarise themselves with the Company, its procedures and prudential requirements, and Board practices and procedures. On an ongoing basis, and subject to approval of the Chairman, Directors may request and undertake training and professional development, as appropriate, at the Company's expense.
3	Act Ethically and Responsibly
3.1	A listed entity should: (a) have a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) disclose that code or a summary of it.	Yes  Yes	The Company has adopted a formal Code of Conduct which is available on the Company's website at the following URL: www.AntaresLimited.com.au .
4	Safeguard Integrity in Corporate Reporting
4.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have an audit committee which:	No  No	The Company, considering its current size and stage of development, does not have a separately constituted audit committee. Accordingly, the responsibility of overseeing audit process of the Company rests with the entire Board.

	1. has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and 2. is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board, and disclose: 3. the charter of the committee; 4. the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and 5. in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.	No No No N/A Yes	The Company in general meetings is responsible for the appointment of external auditors of the Company, and the Board from time to time will review the scope, performance and fees of those external auditors. As the Company grows, the Board will re-evaluate whether establishing a separately constituted audit committee is appropriate.
4.2	The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	No	Each of the directors of the current Board was appointed on 23 March 2018. Prior to this date, the Company was under administration. Accordingly, the Board has received a declaration from its CFO or CEO (or person who performs either of these equivalent functions) that although they have taken all due care in preparing the financial records to the best of their knowledge based on the information given to them, they are of the opinion that it is not possible to state that the financial statements comply with the requirements of the Corporations Act.
4.3	A listed entity that has an AGM should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	Yes	An external auditor will be present at the Company's annual general meeting and be available to answer questions from shareholders relevant to audit.
5	Make Timely and Balanced Disclosure
5.1	A listed entity should: (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Yes	The Company is committed to providing timely, complete and accurate disclosure of information to allow a fair, and well-informed market in its securities and compliance with the continuous disclosure requirements imposed by law, including the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules.

			A copy of the Company's Continuous Disclosure Policy is available at the following website: www.AntaresLimited.com.au .
6	Respect the Rights of Security Holders
6.1	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Yes	The Company provides information about itself and its governance to its investors on the Company's website via the following URL: www.AntaresLimited.com.au . The Company will regularly update the website and contents therein as deemed necessary.
6.2	A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	No	The Company does not have an investor relations program. However, it does have a Securities Trading Policy which is designed to maintain investor confidence in the integrity of the Company's internal controls and procedures to provide guidance on avoiding any breach of the insider trading laws.
6.3	A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	No	The Company, due to its current size and stage of development, does not have a formal shareholder communications policy. Despite this, the Company intends to ensure that information is adequately communicated to shareholders through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) continuous disclosure of all relevant financial and other information to the ASX;</li> <li>(b) publishing information on the Company's website at www.AntaresLimited.com.au;</li> <li>(c) periodic disclosure through the Annual Report and the half year financial report;</li> <li>(d) notice of meetings and explanatory material; and</li> <li>(e) the AGM and other general meetings.</li> </ul> As the Company develops, the Board intends to review its practices, and if deemed necessary, establish a formal shareholders' communication policy.
6.4	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	Yes	The Company encourages shareholders to register for receipt of announcements and updates electronically.
7	Recognise and Manage Risk
7.1	The board of a listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and</li> <li>2. is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>3. the charter of the committee;</li> <li>4. the members of the committee; and</li> </ol> </li> </ol> </li> </ul>	No No No No N/A	The Company, due to its current size and stage of development, does not have a separately constituted risk committee. As the Company develops, the Board intends to review its practices, and if deemed necessary, establish a risk committee.  The Board is currently responsible for the oversight and management of all material business, operational and financial risks.

	5. as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.	Yes
7.2	The board or a committee of the board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	No N/A	The Company, due to its current size and stage of development did not undertake a formal review of the Company's risk management framework during the reporting period. The Board is committed to reviewing the risk management policies of the Company in the future. However, the Board does not consider that disclosure of when these reviews takes place is necessary.
7.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes.	No N/A	The Company will not initially implement an internal audit function as the cost would significantly outweigh the benefits. The Board acknowledges that it is responsible for the overall internal control framework but recognises that no cost-effective internal control system will preclude all errors and irregularities. The Board believes that the current cost control framework is suitable to the Company's current operations. The Company may consider implementing an internal audit function as the Company develops and grows in both size and complexity.
7.4	A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	Yes	All material risks to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks will be announced to the market, in accordance with the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules and otherwise.
